

Program

2023 VALDOSTA STATE UNIVERSITY
Mathematics Department
21th Middle Schools Mathematics Tournament
VSU University Center (Magnolia room)
March 24, 2023

- 8:45 to 9:05am Registration –
Dr. Lazari – Greeter
- 9:05 to 9:15am All individual participants must be seated by 9:00am.
Students are assigned to tables by school and grade level. Students should bring two #2 pencils.
- Welcome -
Introduction of ?????????? Dean of the College of Science and Mathematics.
- Welcome - Dr. Andreas Lazari
- Explanation of scantron forms -teachers need to be present.
- 9:15 to 10:?? Dr. ??? joins the teachers in the hospitality room. (Rose Room)
- 9:15 to 9:20am Distribution of Tests
- 9:20 to 10:00am Individual/Team Written Exam
Be sure students have their names and also their school names (not just initials) and school number on the scantron sheet.
- Students will use their test copies as scratch paper. No additional paper may be used.
- Drs. Lazari and are in charge of all tests. He will distribute the tests to the proctors for each grade level. Proctors must collect all test copies and return them to Drs. Lazari and Neither students nor teachers may keep any test copies. Proctors should return all scantron sheets to Dr. Lazari.

10:05am Grading: Student 1, Student 2, Student 3, Student 4
 Graders-6th Grade:
 Graders-7th Grade:
 Graders 8th Grade:

10:05 to 10:55am Activity: ??????? by Dr. ????????

Teachers please join your students in the testing room for the presentation.

Prepare for Team Award Ceremony

Scorers will write in the winners' names on the form
Organize Trophies for Team Competition Winners

If there are ties, the tiebreaker will be: The first student/team to miss a question is eliminated.

11am to 12noon Awards Ceremony for Individual/Team Competition

Awards' Presenters:
Individual Competition:
Team Competition:

Closing Remarks: Dr. Andreas Lazari

Next year's tournament. Get information and registration forms from Dr. Lazari's web-site (<http://www.valdosta.edu/~alazari>) .