

Group collaboration

Student 2 interview Student 1- Yangtze River How much of China's population lives on the Yangtze? How do people use the river? How big is the area that the Yangtze floods? Name an endangered species in the Yangtze How many people were displaced by the Three Gorges Dam? What problems has the dam caused?	Student 3 interview Student 2- Hong Kong How much sewage is produced in Hong Kong a day? What is one major source of water pollution? What caused the Hong Kong water to be acidic? What is one way of preserving clean water? What is one practical solution for this issue?
Student 4 interview Student 3- Chungking, the river city What type of work are the migrant workers doing in Chungking? Who are usually left behind in the countryside? What type of work do they do in the countryside? What type of farming do the new migrant villagers do? What is happening to factories in coastal China? What will happen to the migrant workers when they lose their jobs in the city? Why? What problem will China likely face in the next 5-10 years? Tell us about your picture	Student 1 interview Student 4- Water issues in Georgia What happened to the Withlacoochee and Sewanee Rivers? How much wastewater? What caused this? What problems could it cause? What did the government do about it? What other water issues are going on in Georgia? Tell us about your picture

